Your support of the GolfStar Classic has changed so many lives, including one of our newest forever families -- Nicole, Josh and Henry. We can't wait to be back on the links this March for a fun and safe day supporting adoption in southeast Louisiana.

Before Nicole and Josh began their married lives, the couple talked about adoption. After their first adoption was unsuccessful, they turned to Volunteers of America. When Nicole and Josh met Henry for the first time, Nicole said: "Seeing all his curly hair, we knew from that moment we saw him that he was our son and we had been waiting for him. We knew he was the one from the moment we saw him."

Another "Meant To Be Moment" came when they shared the name Henry with the birth parents. Henry was the birth father's middle name as well as his father's name. It was truly meant to be, and it is only possible with your support.
