

What does it mean to be a Star Ambassador?

Being a Host is as Simple as Inviting Your Friends to Breakfast.
We'll Do the Rest.

Being a Table Host is easy. Your job is to fill and host a table of 10 at our Reach for the Stars Breakfast on May 12, 2016 at the Pontchartrain Center in Kenner, LA. You will be supported every step of the way.

As a Star Ambassador, will I have to sell tickets to the Reach for the Stars Breakfast?

No. Unlike many fundraising events, attending our Annual Breakfast is absolutely FREE for you and the guests you invite.

As a Star Ambassador, is there a minimum amount of money I need to raise?

No. As a Star Ambassador, your job is not to fundraise for us! At no point will you need to ask the people at your table for money. Your role is simply to invite friends who you think would be moved by the work of Volunteers of America.

Although this is a fundraiser, there is no minimum contribution required. You and your guests should give solely based on how moved you are by our presentation and how passionate you are for our mission.

Although there's no minimum contribution required to attend, your guests should know in advance that they will be asked to give as a part of the program. We'll give you the talking points you need to make this clear.
