

MINISTERS

Commissioned ministers affirm that their personal Christian faith is in harmony with the cardinal doctrines of Volunteers of America.

Individually and collectively, ministers are called to:

-
- Celebrate and administer the sacraments
 - Honor the ecumenical view of different approaches to Christianity and be dedicated to the interfaith offering of our service
 - Lead and participate in formal worship
 - Actively participate in formal worship
 - Actively participate in the local ministry plan
 - Be a servant leader and teacher
 - Be a shepherd and accept the pastoral role
-

Ministers of Volunteers of America Southeast Louisiana

Jason Burt
Assistant Vice President of Administrative Services

Omegia Fulgham-Lee
Director, Community Living Services

Melissa Haley
Director, Supportive Services

Al Kohorst
Vice President of Social Enterprise

Jim LeBlanc
President/CEO

Sheryl LeBlanc
Retired

Akanji Olugbenga
Director, Residential Re-entry Center

Carl Payton
Facilitator, Supported Living Services

Melody Pritchard
Facilitator, Supported Living Services

Pam Scott
Executive Assistant to EVP of Programming

Bud Snowden
Agency Chaplain

Voris Vigee
Executive Vice President of Programming

Ed Weary
Retired

Dee Wild
Assistant Program Director,
North Shore Services