

No Means No

And Yes Is Not Allowed

Every resident has the right to be safe from sexual abuse.

No one has the right to pressure you to engage in sexual acts. If you are being pressured, threatened or extorted for sex, you should report it immediately.

To report a sexual abuse or sexual harassment :

- Contact any staff member at the RRC
- File an Administrative Remedy
- Electronic Message to Staff: DOJ Sexual Abuse Reporting Mailbox (TRULINCS)
- Have a family/friend/attorney report on your behalf
- In writing to: Office of the Inspector General , U.S. Department of Justice Investigations Division 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. Room 4706 Washington, DC 20530

ZERO TOLERANCE— EVERY DAY, EVERY FACILITY

Sexual Abuse is NOT Part of Your Sentence
Know Your Rights

Every resident has the right to be safe from sexual abuse or sexual harassment. No one has the right to pressure you to engage in sexual acts. If you are being pressured, threatened or extorted for sex, you should report it immediately.

Sexual Assault is an Act of Violence End the Silence

Every resident has the right to be safe from sexual abuse. No one has the right to pressure you to engage in sexual acts. If you are being pressured, threatened or extorted for sex, you should report it immediately.

No Means No

And Yes Is Not Allowed

VOASELA RRC has ZERO TOLERANCE for all forms of sexual abuse, harassment, and sexual misconduct between residents, staff, volunteers, contractors or visitors.

If you commit sexual abuse or sexual harassment, beware.

You will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

ZERO TOLERANCE— EVERY DAY, EVERY FACILITY

VOASELA RRC has ZERO TOLERANCE for all forms of sexual conduct between residents, staff, volunteers, contractors or visitors.

If you are aware of any such conduct you must report it.